SUMMONS.

Mount Pleasant.

Next came the nomination of county officers, and here, again, there was a fight. Some of the delegates objected to men holding office two terms, but being in a minority, a few more heartsore politicians were left at the close of that business.

The officers were not distributed very well. Mcreur, having nearly half of the well. Mcreur, having nearly half of the Prosecuting attorney—Edward Pike, Eureka.

EUREKA, Sept. 22.—The Democratic county convention was held here yesterday and the following ticket was named:

The offices were not distributed very well. Mercur, having nearly half of the voters, get but two names on the ticket, while Teoele had four.

Deigates were named to the Independent convention at Salt Lake City. The action of the state Republican committee was denounced, and the convention adjourned.

Vention adjourned.

The McKiniey Republicans met and chose delegates to Mount Pleasant, and appointed W S. Marks and F. W. Orme to attend to the Ogden convention business.

Mercur politicians have that tired feeling over the way they were left in the distribution of county offices.

Mayor Hall is handicapped in his face for the legislature on account of its connection.

The mine will be idle tomorrow—too much mud for the boilers.

The track on the east side of the coke ovens is covered from one to three feet with mud and small rock. Men have been busy all day trying to clear it.

Politically, there are three tickets in the field in this county to gobble up the county offices, and the Democratis, for once, will have a chance if they will only stand together, and I am pleased to note that the county Democracy was never more united than it is today. I will have more to say in relation to the third party in the near future.

Bros, were before the wind storm, showed all activity. The wreeked frame work of the building has been removed and great progress is being made in restoring things to their original shape. About 130 men are at work about the camp in various occupations. An experienced canvas man, A. S. Johnson, has been engaged from Salt Lake to repair and restore tents. The dipping of steel bands in the boiling maiths and the hauling them up to be placed in the wooden pipe gives employment to a number of men. There is still a supply of steel pipe made which will keep the force busy putting it in place for some time.

Each was helpiess with a broken leg. A 'cam was hitched up and in the very height of the avening gale they were brought to the old city hospital by Mr. Poulson. It was a fearful journey, but neither of them suffered any injury.

When the big structure was being rocked by the wind A. C. Emerson, George H. Durbrow and two other men made an effort 'to save it. The big movable crane was in the north end, and it was thought that if it could be moved to the south end, where there was seried.

No nomination was made for attorney, the matter being left open for the central committee to name a man, if they feel it expedient to do so.
The ludicrous part of the proceedings committee reported a plank declaring for free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, without the consent of any other mation. Some of the level-headed men of the party opposed the adoption of the plank, one Kaysville delegate moving that it be stricken out. Considerable debate followed, but finally when it came to a vote the plank was left in the platform and the whole thing adopted.
Later in the session they proceeded to elect eleven delegates to the Mt. Pleasant goldbug convention, and cieven delegates to the convention adjourned.

Echoes of the Storm.

Hande an effort to save it. The big movable crane was in the north end, and it was thought that if it could be moved to the south end, where there was greater need, the building would weather the storm. Part of the gear-ing was destroyed, and the crane could only be moved slowly and by hand. Mr. Emerson, with two other men, vas upon it moving it along when a fearful gust came, and they saw the building was about to collapse. There was no time to jump for ladders. They hast-ened out of an upper window, caught by some guy wires put there to steady the building and went down hand over hand. Mr. Durfrow, who was on the ground floor, got suf just in time to meet them, and just in time to see the structure lifted from its foundations and crushed to fragments.

Mr. Rhodes, who was in the nouth end, where there was greater need, the building would weather the storm. Part of the gear-in the moved slowly and by hand. Mr. Emerson, with two other men, was greater need, the building was faken out he lapsed into unconsciousness.

Surgical aid was procured without delay, and the injured ones were given every attention. The hady is out of danger, but Mr. Hadlock is so seriously hurt that it is feared he may not recover. Reports this morning from the Weber pour farm, which is but a mile from the Hadlock home, are to the effect that the attending physician, Dr. Rich, is hopeful but not confident of his ultimate recovery. He is paralyzed as a result of a distocution of a small bone in the neck, which causes a pressure on the spinni cord.
